A GLANCE AT THE THREE-YEAR-OLDS THAT

Every lover of racing who can go to Monmouth Park will be there to-day to see the rich Lorillard Stakes decided. This prize is for three-year-olds, at the regular weights, 118 pounds for colts and 113 for fillies, without winning penalties or non-winning allowances; distance one mile and a half. starter must pay $250 and $10,000 is added, $7,000 for the first horse, $2,000 for second and $1,000 for third. As the forfeit conditions have different dates only the treasurer of the club knows exactly the calue of the stakes. But there were 212 entries and first money must amount to nearly $15,000, a glittering prize indeed, and one showing the splendid liberality of the Monmouth Park Association.

A fine field of eleven is expected at the post for the Lorillard. The Dwyers now propose to start both Eir Dixon and Bella B. The Haggin stable will run Fitzjames and Guarantee. Mr. Belmont will send Prince Royal to the post, Wulle Los Angeles, Defence Owas, Marauder, Bendigo and Refund are also looked for as starters. It hardly seems possible that Owas, Refund or Bendigo can get a place with the full weight of 118 pounds up at a mile and a half. 2!arauder's second in the Emporium was gained with only 104 pounds up. Defence is not a genuine stayer, and the form of Los Angeles in the West this year has not been high enough to beat this field. Bella II. at this distance in July can hardly finish with the best of the colts. The race will probably lie between the best of the Haggin pair, and Sir Dixon and Prince Royal. If Sir Dixon were up to his Belmont form the race would be all over. But he is not. Both Filzjames and Guarantee last year showed higher form than Prince Royal's. It is true the Delmont celt has improved vastly, but Flizjames must be treated with respect. Guarantee was sent along at such a page for the first mile in the Emperium that better to-day, but his mission may be merely to make running for Fitzjames. The longest lane has a turning. The Haggin luck may change at last. Fitzjames has not run this year but has been doing fair work. I vote then for Fitzjames to win the Lorillard, with Prince Royal second, as lack of condition may stop Sir Pixon.

There will be other highly attractive races to-day.

A malignant and lying attack upon The Tribune's racing commo has been printed, and in this attack fa'se statement is made that The Tribune charged that the third race on Thursday was "thrown" by George Oyster's rider. It never made such a charge. It said that the riding of the celt was strangely bad and it adheres to that opinion. This falsehood comes from a person who poses as a turf expert but knows so little about racing that he solemnly remarked in Print that Mr. Galway's well-known colt Himalaya would make a good brood mare. Following are the lists of probable starters to-day:

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

J. B. Haggin's forfeits at the Coney Island Jockey Club's June meeting were over $12,000. In the Tidal Stakes alone they amounted to $1,910, and yet out of forty nominations for that race he had not a single starter. The entire winnings of this vast and costly racing establishment at Sheepshead were less than $800. Aurelin was the only winner, and her victory was scored in an insignifleent sweepstakes on the last day.

Burr Oak, who won the hurdle race on Thursday, made ic record over the sticks for 1 3-8 miles in 1886, and has held it ever since. He was of no carthly use last did American clipper Farragut, which sailed from Cal-cutta on January 20, and has not since been heard The Farragut was a sister ship of the ill-fated Frank N. Thayer, which was burned in January, 1886, 750 miles from St. Helena, by two Malay sattors, after they had nearly killed the captain and murdered and wounded half the crew. Captain Robert K. Clarke, who was in command of the Thayer at the time of that tragedy, and whose life was saved by the heroic devotion and forethought of his wife, said to a "Tribune reporter yesterday:

1 for one do not believe the report that has been circulated here to the effect that the wreck of the Farragut has been seen some 1,200 miles from Calcutts. If the shipmaster who made that report thought it was the Farragut, why did he not secure a fragment from the wreck so as to make sure! She was a magnificent ship of nearly 1,600 ons, and in command of Captain Hardwicke, as good a ma tons, and in command of Captain Hardwicke, as good a man as ever sailed under the American flag. He had his wife and a young child with him. At 1.200 miles from Calcutta he would have been in the region of fine weather, and if he came to grief there it could only have been by lightning or by a nutthy. It is hardly possible that the saip may still be affoat in a crippled condition, but she has been dropped from the maritime list, and probably if she is ever heard from at all it will be a tale of blood like that of the Theyer.

HOTEL GUESIS FRIGHTANED BY FLAMES. A BIG BUILDING ON UNION SQUARE PURNED-

MAN BADLY HUET-LOSS, $200,000. Fire broke out a few minutes before 1 o'clock this morning in the big five-story brick building Nos. 38 to 46 East Eighteenth-st., which extends through the block and faces on Union Square, and in a few moments the whole top floor was wrapped in flames. The building adjoins the Everett House, and much consternation was eaused among the guests there, who rushed in wild excitement from their rooms. Many of them left the house, taking refuge in neighboring hotels, par-tienlarly the Union Square. A strong westerly wind was blowing at the time, which carried volumes of smoke and burning cinders and embers over on the Hotel Belvidere, where another small panic was created among the more timid of the guests.

Henry Wilson, engineer for the Century Com pany, while endeavoring to rescue his family who lived on the top floor of another adjoining building in Seventeenth-st., fell from a fire-escape to the ground and was terribly injured. A number of calls for ambulances were quickly sent out, in anticipation of accidents.

The building was occupied on the top floor where the fire broke out, by the bookbindery of George D. Alexander. Johnson & Faulkner, upholstery, had the first floor, and Worthington, Smith & Co., millinery goods, the second and third, and the fourth floor was occupied by Earl & Wilson, collars and cuffs By 2 a. m. the fire was under control. The damage amounts to about $200,000

Among the guests of the Everett House were Henry Watterson, H. A. P. Carter, Minister from Honolulu to the United States, and Senator Williams, of Nevada.

The library is in charge of Miss Janet E. Stott, who is assisted by Miss Rose Hoffman, Mrs. Jessie Ryder and Miss Annie Eck. ROBERT GILCHRIST. ROBERT GILCHRIST.

Robert Gilchrist, a well-known and distinguished lawyer, died at 7 p. m. yesterday at his home, No. 67 Mercer-st., Jersey City. He had been prostrated since the

The cost of the connection varied from $25 to $50. Spencer has been operating all over the State, and his profits must have been large. He was held to await the action of the Grand Jury.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHTING WRANGLE.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE POLICE COURT HEARING -AWAITING THE PAPERS.

The Board of Electrical Control is determined that the United States Illuminating Company shall not use the streets of this city any longer for electric lighting by aerial wires and the action of Commissioners Moss and Gibbens on Thursday was to prevent the company from turning the current into the wires in the district recently prohibited from use by the board. President Lynch, of the company, said vesterday that nothing further will be done by his He expected that the papers in the suit to compel him to put the wires underground would be received yesterday. This suit was brought by Corporation Counsel Beckman for the Mayor and the papers in the case have been in preparation for some time. The hearing in the police court case was adjourned until Thursday, when Justice Gorman will hear both sides of the question. In the meantime, if the police company he will be arrested and held for trial. The Board will prosecute all of these cases, Commissioner Gibbens said yesterday that the ex-cuses of the company against putting their wires under ground because of lack of local distribution were silly, adding: "We asked the company to were siny, adding: we asked the company to suggest a means of distribution if the plans now used are not satisfactory, but they have not done so. If they think the cost too high, then appeal should be made to this board or to any court and the cost could be regulated.

LOATH TO BELIEVE IT SUICIDE.

MRS. HENDERSON, DISCHARGED BY THE CORONER, TAKES HER HUSBAND'S BODY HOME.

tained stoutly yesterday that he did not commit sui-cide, but that he took the poison by mistake. At the inquest which was held yesterday by Coroner Eldman, Mrs. Henderson, who had been under arrest at her rooms in the Astor House, where her husband killed himself, testified. She said she knew of no reaon why he should kill himself. He came into the hotel during the evening and was apparently in the best of spirits. In fact, he was livelier than usual, but suddenly grew pale and began to sink. A physician could not be found immediately, but one from Hudnut's drug store gave him an antidote for the poison that he had taken. After telling this Mrs. Henderson was discharged, and she returned to the hotel. Dr. Herold, Coroner Eldman's assistant, who made the autopsy, found that the dead man had taken carbolic acid. The lining of the stomach had been eaten away and the inflammatio extended to the intestines. Evidences of morphine were also found. Dr. Farrington, of the Astor House, does not think, however, that Mr. Henderson had taken enough carbolic acid to kill him. He could ascertain no reason for Mr. Henderson's action. He had not been drinking, and he and his wife seemed to get along happily with each other. He suffered with lumbago, and may have taken the acid by mistake fo some other medicine.

Mr. Henderson was the manager of the W. J. Gor don Lamp Company, of Cleveland, Ohio, and came East thou ten days ago on a business trip. The body was ast night sent to Cleveland. Mrs. Henderson accompanied it, leaving the city on the 11:30 train. Her cousin, Anson H. Partridge, of this city, endeavored to get Dr. Farrington to have the death certificate changed from suicide to accidental death.

OPPOSED TO WIDENING ELM STREET.

TO HAVE A PUBLIC HEARING ON THE COLLEGE PLACE PLAN-

The Board of Street Opening yesterday took up the Elm-st, question again. The Mayor expressed himself as more and more satisfied that relief for Broadway must come eventually from the west side, and not from Elm-st. General Newton and President Forster concurred, and General Newton presented a plan for sed widening of College place to eighty feet, from Chambers to Fulton sts. It was decided to give a public hearing on this plan at the meeting to be held in two weeks. In the discussion the Mayor said: "I have been misrepresented in the newspapers and vilified and abused, but I am not going to be dra gooned by Mr. Stetson or 'The New-York Times' Into voting to open Elm-st., until I know that the people on that street want it opened." The sub-committee on the East River Park reported that the cost of the park should be divided between the city and neighboring property-owners, the area of assessment to be half a mile from the park. The report was sanctioned. Avenue B was, by resolution ordered to be opened to the Harlem River. After dis cussing the extension of High Bridge Park, the matter was laid over to allow the Mayor time to bring the viaduct plan connected with it before the Board of Estimate, after which the park boundaries will be fixed. The Board of Public Works was requested to prepare plans for improving the property west of Kingsbridge road, between One-hundred-and-sixty-fifth and Dyckman sts.

THE REV. DR. DAVIS TO RETURN TO BROOKLYN. The Rev. Dr. Wesley R. Davis, of the Madison Avenue Reformed Church, of Albany, N. Y., has accepted a call to the Reformed Church on the Heights, Brooklyn, to succeed the Rev. A. J. Hutton, who went to Rochester last year. Dr. Davis is well-known in Brooklyn, where he was at one time paster of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal Church. About ter years ago he accepted a call to succeed Dr. George Hepworth, of the Church of the Disciples, afterward Madison Avenue Congregational Church, this city. Two years later he went to Albany. Dr. Davis is about forty-five years old and was graduated from Wesleyan University, at Middletown, Conn., in 1868 He entered the ministry in a Methodist church in Baltimore. From there he went to Brooklyn, then to St. James Methodist Episcopal Church in Harlem, St. James Methodist Episcopal Church in Harlem, from which he went to Dr. Hepworth's old church life received his degree of D. D. from Rutgers College. His salary in Albany has been $6,000, and he will receive the same amount in Brooklyn. The church to which he will go is in Pierrepont-st., and was built for Dr. Bethune when he began his pastorate in Brooklyn about forty years ago. It is one of the leading churches of the Reformed denomination. One reason for the removal of Dr. Davis from Albany is the severity of the winters there, which affects the health of Mrs. Davis.
